Mrs. Abbott's News

We were really glad to see so many of you at our meeting Tuesday night. We hope we cleared up any questions you may have had. If not, let us know and we will try to help out.

This week, we are making another class book about our friends. We are also making a number book that they will be bringing home toward the end of next week.

Remember to keep selling Sally Foster Gift Wrap!

Calendar Happenings:

Wednesday, August 27: Picture Day

Thursday, August 28: RTA Family Dinner and General Meeting.

Monday and Tuesday, September 1-2: No School

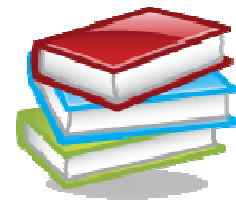

Mrs. Doss' News

This week we are talking about the creation gifts which we can find in the sky.

Tonight's Homework:

We will begin homework next week. In the meantime, read a book with your child every night!

August Service Project:

None, but be ready to give to the Humane Society in September!
